

Tracey Porter is the Director of Human Resources for the Baptist Medical Center and Wolfson's Children's Hospital in Jacksonville, FL. He is the Senior Partner for the American HR Group, and Co-Owner of My Sneaker Guy, a distributor of high-end sneakers.

Previously, he held numerous global HR leadership roles with the several well-known companies such as General Electric, Tyco International, and Kraton International. Most of his assignments focused on HR strategy, change management, and talent acquisition in countries such as France, Germany, Netherlands, UK, China, Brazil, Finland, Sweden, and Canada. His greatest accomplishments have been attributed to his work on multibillion-dollar acquisitions and divestitures.

He has been an adjunct professor at the University of Mary Washington, Vice Chairman of the Board for the United Negro College Fund (UNCF) - Jacksonville, Board Chairman for the Omega Hope Foundation, and currently is the Immediate-Past Basileus of the Iota Mu Nu Chapter of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Incorporated.

Tracey has a B.S. in Business Administration from the University of Mary Washington, a Masters in Counseling Psychology and Education Administration from James Madison University, and a Masters in Human Resources from Rutgers University.

He is married to Tonya Porter and had two children Julian and Trent.